CPP Welcomes VP, Asset Management

Michael Snowdon

Michael Snowdon has joined Community Preservation Partners (CPP) as VP, asset management. Snowdon is an affordable-housing executive with decades of experience.

An Orange County, California, native, Snowdon comes to CPP from Highridge Costa Investors, where he oversaw a portfolio of more than 275 communities worth more than $3 billion. For CPP, he will be directing the asset-management team as it expands into new markets.

“Michael has a deep knowledge of the ins and outs of our industry, but more importantly he brings a passion for serving the residents of affordable-housing communities, which is what we value most at CPP,” says CPP President Anand Kannan. “We are excited to have him on the team as we continue to grow and reach new heights nationwide.”

Snowdon calls affordable housing “the backbone of our country” and says everyone is responsible for instilling pride and productivity in our communities. “CPP has emerged as one of the industry’s driving forces, especially in the rehabilitation space. I am thrilled to be joining such a talented and dedicated team that really understands and delivers on the mission.”

Snowdon’s hiring follows two other personnel moves at the company. Earlier this year, CPP executives Seth Gellis and Karen Buckland were each appointed to VP.
